AMDL INC.'S CHAIRMAN & CEO MR. DOUGLAS MACLELLAN FEATURED ON FOX BUSINESS NEWS WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2009

TUSTIN, Calif., February 4, 2009 – (www.amdl.com) AMDL, Inc. (NYSE Alternext US: ADL - News), a US-based pharmaceutical company with major operations in China, announced today its Chairman and CEO Mr. Douglas MacLellan has appeared on Fox Business News today, Wednesday, February 4, 2009 at 6:40 a.m. ET (3:40 a.m. PT).

Mr. MacLellan was invited as a guest expert on Fox Business News to discuss the Chinese business environment specifically for pharmaceutical and healthcare companies, the Company's outlook for 2009 and its focus on growth in the emerging Chinese market, and how AMDL is leading the industry as one of the first US-based companies to enforce and implement Westernized business practices -- including SOX-compliant operating procedures and GAAP-certified accounting practices – across its US and China operations.

According to Mr. MacLellan, "I'm extremely honored with an opportunity to address these important topics with Fox Business News. They are subjects investors inquire about most often when we communicate the AMDL story and topics that impact Wall Street's overall view and investing appetite for China-based pharmaceutical companies."

AMDL has successfully managed its US- and China-based operations despite the current economic downturn, delivering impressive and consistent revenue growth for the past four years. Over this period, the Company has achieved in excess of 100% YOY gross revenue growth and expects to continue that forward momentum in FY2009.
